

THE FISHAWACK PAPERS

TABLE OF CONTENTS & INDICES

EXPLANATION OF USE

The Indexing of the 400 manuscripts making up The Fishawack Papers has been a long, arduous task done by volunteers.

Several points need to be noted to facilitate the use of these two volumes.

If there is a + after a page number, that indicates biographical data of the author of the manuscript.

If there is a # after a number, that indicates a picture of the author.

References of many individuals under one surname do not mean that all those people are related.

In the case of married women, the pagination is essentially under the maiden name when known with the married name cross-referenced. However, all the pages are not incorporated under the maiden name; so, in both cases, it is wise to check the maiden and married names to be sure of a complete reference.

It is hoped that this Index will prove to be a useful tool for many years to come.

ADDENDA

A. Expressions of Appreciation

1. To the dedicated members of the committee who have prepared this index--all on a volunteer basis--which has entailed months of painstaking labor. Particular thanks go to Mr. Arthur B. Jaquith, who did all of the typing.

The Committee:

Left to right: Mrs. Winifred H. Criss, Mrs. Ralph M. C. Greenidge, Mrs. Marshall N. Waterman, Mrs. Frank J. Bowden, Mr. Arthur B. Jaquith, and Mrs. Eleanor Karr Shipley.

Not in picture: Mr. Ralph F. Bates.

2. Especially to artist Ray G. Ellis for the unique end papers of the book--a recognition all too long inadvertently delayed.

3. Gratitude, deep and sincere, is hereby extended to Mrs. Keith Block (Janet). In the beginning and as this project gradually unfolded it was deemed helpful to keep all four hundred twenty-five participants informed of progress and changes. To this end, a series of eight bulletins--some consisting of as many as four pages--were intermittently sent out. This material was typed by Mrs. Block; then on her own time, using the equipment of the Ogden Memorial Presbyterian Church, were run off and brought to the workshop. Other volunteers did the extensive mailing.

Toward the end of the project, after the book had been published, came the stupendous task of preparing 5,100 pages of manuscript for microfilming and eventual binding. This consisted of collating the pages and adding to each manuscript a listing of pictures, pamphlets, etc., that the author had included but which were too numerous to microfilm or bind. This historical material was put in the Historical Society files.

Mrs. Block, a talented, professional secretary, worked with the chairman twice weekly for seven months.

C. Certificate of Commendation.

In 1974, at the time of the second printing of 1000 copies of "Crossing of the Fishawack," The Chatham Historical Society was the recipient of a Certificate of Commendation from the American Association for State and Local History. The first printing consisted of 2500 copies. We are advised that this is the most prestigious award in the field of local history for the area comprising the United States and Canada. Although the Society received the award, it has pointed out that it merely sponsored the project; that many non-members participated in a significant way. It was actually a community enterprise.

D. Outgrowths of the Project.

1. The Memorial Book, containing photographs and biographical records of the local casualties of World War II.

D. (cont'd)

2. Two other books with material researched by Mr. Wallace G. Babcock, containing records of all local servicemen of World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War.
3. Adoption by the Community of the term "Fishawack" as its logo or trademark, as being applied to the biennial get-together referred to as "Fishawack Day," sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and various other events.

E. Autobiographical Sketches.

Autobiographical sketches of three persons, Mrs. Winifred Criss, Mrs. Eleanor Karr Shipley and Mr. Donald Wallace White, who have assisted with the "Fishawack" project, are appended to this index. This data is not elsewhere recorded.

F. Microfilm.

The 5100 pages of manuscript, bound into 14 volumes, entitled "The Fishawack Papers," have been microfilmed and are being utilized for historical and genealogical research.

With the completion of this index, the Committee and Mr. John T. Cunningham, New Jersey's famous historian, bring to a close the adventure into "Chatham: At the Crossing of the Fishawack."

Edna Van Sickle Budd
(Mrs. M.L.)
Edna Van Sickle Budd (Chairman)

Mrs. Winifred Harrison Criss came to Chatham, New Jersey, with her sister, Miss Lucy M. Harrison, and son John H. Criss, in July of 1950. Her father was Thomas Gould Harrison and her mother was Winifred Jones Harrison. Both parents for eight generations came from East Orange, New Jersey.

Mrs. Criss is a graduate of the Piano and Theory Departments of The Institute of Musical Art of The Juilliard School and is a member of the Juilliard Alumni Association.

For several years she was Assistant Music Editor at Silver Burdett Company, textbook publishers. She taught piano in Chatham for ten years.

She has also composed and published several children's songs to verses written by her late sister, Lucy M. Harrison, and has written music for Christmas carols to verses by her brother, Schuyler G. Harrison.

Her hobby has been for over 40 years the collection of autographs and autographed photographs of famous musicians, a collection started when she was a student of piano in New York City, at which time she met the artists backstage after concerts in Carnegie Hall and the old Metropolitan Opera House.

Among the great pianists she has signatures of Paderewski, Hofmann, Rachmaninoff, Myra Hess and many others of that era, as well as the autographs of Rubinstein, Iturbi, Arrau, Serkin and other famous pianists. In her collection is an autograph of Jean Sibelius sent from Finland, and a cancelled check with Edward MacDowell's signature.

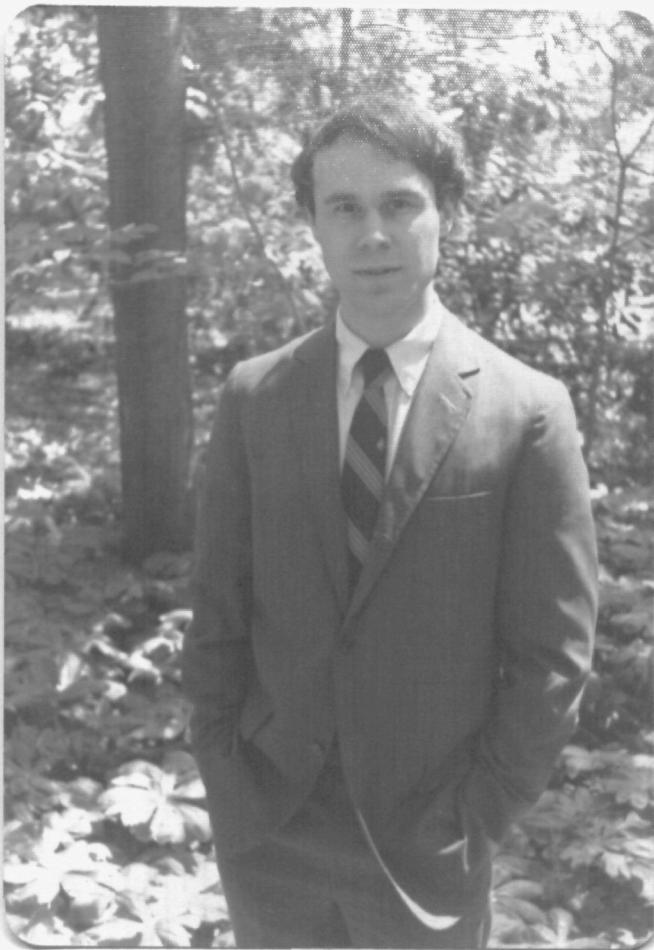

Her autographed photographs of many of the noted opera stars include Mme. Schumann Heink, Flagstad, Melchior, Martinelli, Galli-Curci, and recently through attendance at concerts and correspondence, she has received the autographed photographs of Robert Merrill and Beverly Sills.

One of her most cherished autographs is one sent to her by Toscanini in 1932.

"The Star-Ledger" heard about this collection and has written a feature story to appear in the newspaper.

Home at 26 Orchard Road, Chatham

Donald W. White was born in Summit and raised in Chatham, New Jersey. He holds a B.A. from Hartwick College (Oneonta, New York), and an M.S. in Education from the City University of New York, and an M.A. in History from New York University, where he is a doctoral candidate in American History. Specializing in foreign affairs, he is completing his dissertation on the internal dynamics of post-World War II American diplomacy.

He was a member of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare's Urban Teacher Corps in New York City and has been an instructor at New York University.

Having worked as a researcher for various publications, he is Assistant Editor of The Papers of William Livingston, a project sponsored by the National Historical Publications and Records Commission and the New Jersey Historical Commission. He is the son of Frederick Lupton White and Jean Wallace White of 19 Dellwood Avenue, Chatham. He currently lives in New York City.

Mr. White has also written a book entitled A Village at War: Chatham, N. J., which is now in publication by Fairleigh Dickinson University Press. This story of Revolutionary Chatham is an excellent complement to the military strategy of the war as told by Ambrose Ely Vanderpoel in his history of Chatham.

Eleanor Karr Shipler, daughter of Edmund J. and Grace Royer Karr, came to Chatham from Cramford in 1921. She graduated from Chatham High School in 1929 and from Mount Holyoke College in 1933. In 1938, she married Guy Emery Shipler, Jr., son of Dr. Guy Emery Shipler and Rebekah Schultz Shipler. Dr. Shipler was Vicar of St. Paul's Church and editor of The Churchman. She has one son, David Karr Shipler, married to Deborah Isaacs; two grandchildren, Jonathan and Laura; two sisters, Dorothy Karr Hoffman of Southbury, Connecticut, and Marian Karr Cordner of Riverside, Connecticut.

Mrs. Shipler taught English in Chatham High School from 1958 to 1972.
